

ARST Book Club, February 8: Join us for our Antiracism Storytime book club! In February we are reading the follow-up to Jerry Craft's New Kid with Class Act. For this coming Tuesday, we're reading chapters 4-6, and we'll meet on Zoom on Tuesday, February 8, at 6:30 pm, to discuss together. The book is geared for older elementary students, but all are welcome. And no worries if someone doesn't get to read beforehand. As part of our conversation, we'll recap that week's section. Registration for Taking Flight is Open: In March-June, we're going to be offering Taking Flight - a sexuality education program based on Our Whole Lives (OWL) - for youth in 7-9th grade. Families that expressed interest in Jr High OWL should have received an email with all the details, including schedule, mandatory Parent and Caregiver Orientation, and instructions for signing up. If you did not receive the email or would like information, email Jessica, jessica@uuwausau.org.

This program is open to UU Wausau youth, and you can find general details about OWL here: <https://www.uua.org/re/owl>.

Persons with an interest can call McLit directly to get information and ask to be put on the tutor volunteer list which sends out information and updates. Or, send an e-mail to sharee@mcclitofwausau.org

Donations for Wausau Free Clinic

Mandy Wright, with Thrivent, is hosting a drive to gather supplies for the Wausau Free Clinic, a ministry of our neighbors at the First Presbyterian Church of Wausau, and operating out of the First United Methodist Church. Their mission is "To serve others by providing urgent and ongoing high quality medical care to all low income and medically uninsured/underinsured persons without charge to assist in the healing of body, mind and spirit."

To help support this valuable and much-needed ministry, please pick up a list of their much-needed supplies (available in the Atrium), and drop off your donations at UU Wausau by the end of February. Mandy will collect and deliver the donations the beginning of March.
