EarthWords for this week: “Everything that is in the heavens, on earth, and under the earth is penetrated with connectedness, penetrated with relatedness.” -Hildegard of Bingen

Please jot down your actions for Project SEA-Change on the scroll in the Atrium after the service. Thank you from the Environmental Action Group (EAG).

Youth Group Kickoff—Today!!

Youth in grades 7-12 are invited to join the Youth Group for their kickoff this afternoon from 2-4 pm. No morning session today. There will be games, food, and planning for upcoming events and projects. In the event of inclement weather, we'll move indoors. If folks have them, youth are invited to bring a camp chair, but we will also have a few extras on hand.

Tween Book Club, September 29

Growing from our Antiracism Storytime, Book Club is for tweens and their families (caregivers, grandparents, etc.). We are going to kick off the year with an in-person dinner on Thursday, September 29, from 6-8 pm. We'll have pizza and sides, and parents/caregivers are welcome to join us. During the second half of the evening, we'll vote on the titles we are going to read this year, and participants are invited to bring along/suggest books they'd like the group to read.

RSVPs for dinner on the 29th are not required but are appreciated to help with food planning. Folks who are not able to attend in person are welcome to join the group at 7:00 pm on Zoom. Email Jessica, jessica@uuwausau, to RSVP or for the Zoom link.

First Sunday Potluck— next Sunday, October 2nd!

Join us in the Dining Hall after next Sunday’s service for a potluck hosted by the Caring Committee and the Knitting Group! The theme is “Wisconsin Comfort Casseroles,” though we will also need salads and desserts! The centerpieces will double as fall-themed floral gifts for our homebound members, so please try to clear space in your Sunday or Monday to deliver one and brighten a homebound congregant’s day!
