We Rock It! Book Club, November 10

Tweens and their caregivers are invited to join us for our We Rock It! Book Club. November's book is The Prince and the Dressmaker by Jen Wang, and we'll meet on Zoom on November 3, at 7:00 pm, to discuss chapters 5-8. Folks are welcome to participate whether they have completed the reading or not. We always review that week's material. Email Jessica, jessica@uuwausau.org, for the Zoom link.

There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the Atrium for people who are willing to help out with a Thanksgiving feast on November 12th for our new refugee neighbors.

Please do not include any meat, pork, or lard products.

Wanted: "Good Leads to Green Reads"

Books make great gifts because they have whole worlds inside of them. -Neil Gaiman

The Environmental Action Group is compiling its second annual list of books on climate, ecology, natural history and the environment, suitable for winter holiday gift-giving. Titles of books for children, young adults and mature readers are welcome. Fiction, poetry, graphic novels and general audience nonfiction are all suitable. Please include the full citation and a brief statement about the meaning the book has for you.

Submit your titles by Tuesday, November 15th, to: donnakeuck@gmail.com.

All Ages Blanket Making, November 12

Join us for no-sew blanket making on Saturday, November 12, at 9:00 am. We'll be making no-sew fleece blankets for area organizations. We'll have a light breakfast, and participants are invited to bring along fabric scissors if they have them. No craft skills are necessary (just tying knots) and this service project is open to families with children or without children at home. RSVPs are appreciated. EarthWords for Sunday, November 6, 2022

We abuse land because we regard it as a commodity belonging to us. When we see land as a community to which we belong, we may begin to use it with love and respect. -Aldo Leopold

Please jot down your good deeds for Planet Earth on the Project SEA-Change scroll in the atrium after the service. Sharing your acts of caring inspires us move forward in faith and joy.
