Notes from the Music Department

Please join me in sharing our very special appreciation for both of our special musical guests today, Louis Pradt, flute, and Kristin Zaal, voice. Kristin and her husband, Paul, are the proud owners of the very fine The Chocolate Shop on Third Avenue. Thank you, Kristin, for taking time from your very busy life to share your talents with us!

You may be wondering if "We're Gonna Sit at the Welcome Table" was selected for the final song as a nod for the potluck lunch that is sponsored by the Choir members today. Yes! Today's monthly community meal promises to be very "noteworthy!"

The UU Choir meets Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 8:00 in our well ventilated atrium. Join us as we prepare music to share with the congregation approximately once a month. Right now, we are solidifying the music that we will sing for the annual Christmas Sing, Sunday, Dec. 11 and for Christmas Eve, Dec. 24. Can't read music? No problem - neither can most musicians on this planet. No audition is required - just bring your good ears and a desire to be a part of our close knit singing community as we create joyous harmonies.

Our Drum Club meets Mondays at 7:00 p.m. in the Drum Haven located at 1005 Steuben St. Wausau. No previous percussion experience or musical background is necessary and all drums and other small percussion instruments are furnished. Join us as we prepare for sharing our talents at the annual celebration of the Winter Solstice, Dec. 21.

A Time for All Things

To ev'rything there is a season, there is a time for all good things;
A time to plant and a time to reap, a time to lose, a time to keep;
A time to weep, a time to laugh, a time to mourn, a time to dance.
To ev'rything there is a season; there is a time for all good things.

A time to follow; a time to lead, a time to speak and a time to heed;
A time to sleep, a time to wake, a time to give and a time to take.
For all the blessings of our God are given us that we might have,
A time to live and a time to share, a time to love and a time to care.
A time, a time, a time for all good things,
All good things.

Come With Me to Bethlehem

Come with me to Bethlehem, to Bethlehem we'll go;
And there we'll find a tiny child and a mother singing low.
There we'll find a tiny child and a mother singing low.

Come with me to Bethlehem, a star will show the way.
And there we'll find the Prince of Peace sleeping sweetly on the hay.
There we'll find the Prince of Peace sleeping sweetly on the hay.

Come with me to Bethlehem, it isn't far to go,
And there we'll hear the angels sing, "In excelsis Deo!"
There we'll hear the angels sing, "In excelsis Deo!"

Come with me to Bethlehem, we'll kneel and softly pray;
For there we'll find God's love revealed in the dawn of Christmas day;
For there we'll find God's love revealed in the dawn of Christmas day.

Come with me to Bethlehem.
