-Advent, or a Season of Expectation

The Rev. Brian Mason

It's no secret I love Christmas. I love Advent calendars, reindeer, one horse open sleighs, the colors red and green, beards, and evergreen trees almost as much as I liked laser tag and Michael Jackson in the '90s. Without fail though, at the end of every year I feel a sense of sadness when the season's finally over. (It's not because I didn't get a Red Ryder BB gun either.) What I miss is that feeling of expectation in the weeks leading up to the big day; I miss the feeling of one year's ending in exchange for another; I miss the quiet mystery I felt when I walked cold streets lined with sparkling lights; I miss my daughter's hourly inquiry about the days left until Christmas; and I miss the sense of expectation, the not yet time of Advent. Come, this Sunday, and let us discuss the joys of waiting, and the mysteries yet to come.

-Have Mercy

The Rev. Brian Mason

How many of you are hard on yourselves? How many of you can more easily and quickly list 10 things you don't like about yourself than 10 things you do? You're probably not alone. Let me rephrase that: You're definitely not alone. This morning we'll discuss mercy, our duty to give it, but mostly our self-imposed deprivation of it.

Music: Ray Kraemer & Louis Pradt

December 17

-Annual Christmas Pageant

Please join us for this fabulous tradition, when our children & youth will perform a play depicting the story of Jesus's birth, in Bethlehem. With special music from the Children's Choir, a brand-new stage set and script, you won't want to miss this!

Music: Margaret Jerz & the Children's Choir

December 24

-No 10:30AM Service—see below for info about our evening candlelight service.

December 31

-This will be our traditional congregation sharing of readings, stories, music, hopes, and dreams for the new year. This is participatory service, largely created by those attending. Everyone is encouraged to bring some insightful/inspirational words, a story, or song or musical piece to sing or play. The service will be coordinated by the Worship & Music Ministry Team.

Candlelight Service at 7:00PM

Worship Leader: The Rev. Brian Mason

This evening we will gather to sing traditional Christmas hymns, shine our lights bright in the night, and be reminded of the beauty and gift inherent in each new life.

From a Window on Grant

December is filled with special events, beginning with Hanging of the Greens on Friday, December 8, at 6:30pm. This is an intergenerational event open to all. Very soon some detailed information will be sent out. But the instructions are pretty simple: RSVP, think of some food or drink you'd like to bring and share, and come and have fun. Everyone could use a break from the seasonal sprint so many of us endure around the holidays.

The second event is the Christmas Pageant, which will be held on Sunday, December 17, at 10:30am. For the first time in many years we'll be graced with the voices of our very own Children's Choir, which is being directed by Margaret Jerz. The Pageant itself is being directed by Sarah Rudolph, and Theran Peterson is constructing the set. The Pageant we're performing is adapted from the one celebrated by the First Unitarian Universalist Church of Concord, New Hampshire (Founded 1827), for over 150 years.

What I love about this traditional Christmas Pageant is that it tells a story that brings us into direct conversation with our spiritual ancestors, and other people of faith throughout the world. If there's a unifying element within the Christmas story, and I believe there is, it's the invitation we're offered to acknowledge the beauty and possibility inherent in each new life.

And finally, on Sunday, December 24, at 7:00pm, our church will celebrate the annual Christmas Eve Candlelight Service. Following the service, we will gather in the atrium for some light refreshments and stimulating conversation.

There's a lot going on this month and I hope to see you all at each of the events.

In faith and love, Brian

Office Space

Happy Holidays! I am so excited about all of the fun activities we have going on this month! First of all, you know my kids like to be involved and this year they are taking part in both the Christmas Pageant and the Children's Choir. Brian already mentioned the Hanging of the Greens (feel free to bring along a bottle of wine!) and our Christmas Eve Candlelight Service (back at our traditional 7PM time), but there's even more to look forward to!

After the Christmas Eve service, we are bringing back our Cookie and Punch Reception in the atrium, courtesy of our hosts, Karen and Tim Peterson! We will also include contributions of fruit and cheese as a nod to good health. Your donation of a dozen cookies may be dropped off during office hours the week before Christmas. Fruit and cheese donations are best brought with you to the service. Thank you!

And that's not all! Sunday, December 10 is our first Christmas Sweater Sunday! Grab your Christmas shirts - no matter how beautiful or ugly they may be - and show your holiday spirit!

See you in church, Anji

Religious Education

It's an exciting time of year! It can also be a hectic and stressful time of year. I recently participated in a webinar for religious educators titled, "Helping Your Congregation De-stress for the Winter Holidays." The facilitator Katie Covey, a well-known RE curriculum author, offered a piece of wisdom that I found interesting. She stated that the four things children and youth really want for Christmas are: 1) A relaxed and loving time with the family, 2) Realistic expectations about gifts, 3) An evenly paced holiday season and, 4) Reliable family traditions. I would invite you to pause for a moment and ask yourself if you're giving your children those four things during the Holiday season. If you're looking for a new family tradition we're offering several opportunities at First UU Wausau this month that could fit the bill. Perhaps your family wants to join in for the Hanging of the Greens on the 8th or participate in Holiday Sweater Day at church on the 10th or the Christmas Pageant on Dec 17th or the beautiful candlelight Christmas Eve service on the 24th.

Wishing you an evenly paced, relaxed, and loving Holiday Season,

Julie,

Dir. of Religious Education

A big thank you to Sally Schmidt for holding a jewelry making fundraiser. She taught several church members how to make these beautiful beaded pendants made from original Universalist Church silver flatware, and raised $180 for UU Wausau!

Open Arms, support for the joys and challenges of raising children is a group which aims to support anyone doing the work of raising children. We will meet twice a month, the 2nd and 4th Thursday, 9:30-11:00 am. The goal of this group is for each member to grow as an individual and as a parent through connection and knowledge. Each meeting will include connection through coffee and time for discussion, and knowledge through a speaker, video, article or presentation. A limited amount of childcare will be available at each meeting and must be reserved. Email Julie at julie@uuwausau.org to reserve childcare. News for UUs

☛ Annual Congregational Meeting

The 2017 Annual Congregational meeting will take place December 3, directly after the service. All UUA certified members are encouraged to attend to vote on the 2018 Budget, nominations to the Board of Trustees, and minutes from the last two congregational meetings. The proposed budget is available on our website (www.uuwausau.org) or the reception counter.

☛ WomenCraft Holiday Gifts

Scott and Peggy Stalheim will have woven items for sale from this Fair Trade certified social enterprise in Ngara, Tanzania on Dec. 3rd and 10th before and after the Sunday Service. Ngara is one of the poorest areas of Tanzania, where 80% of the population has an average income of $95 per year. There are over 300 artisans from 17 villages within a 60 km area of Tanzania. Their average age is 40, 81% are married, 72% farm their own land. On the average they care for 5 children and support 1 orphan. 77% had malaria this year. 99% of their earned income is spent on purchasing children's clothing, education and growing nutritious food.

WomenCraft's members weave with a traditional technique passed down for generations. The grasses and banana stalk used in production are cultivated near their villages, and hand-dyed fabrics are purchased in the local markets. Visit www.womencraft.com for more information

☛ Hanging of the Greens

This 2nd Friday Nighters, December 8 beginning at 6pm, we will ring in a brand new tradition: the Hanging of the Greens here at UU Wausau! Help us ring in the holiday season with an evening of decorating and celebration. As with other 2nd Friday Nighters, please bring a dish to share. See you there!

☛ Community Focus Collections

The holidays are a difficult time for many in terms of food insecurity. As always, we will focus our donations this December on area food pantries. Our grocery cart in the reception area is always there to accept non-perishable items to be delivered to The Neighbors' Place, the Women's Community, and the Mosinee Community Center of Hope.

In December orders of service, you will find a giving envelope. All monies received will go to local food pantries. Envelopes will be collected during our Christmas Eve Service, or you can drop them off at the office any time.

All of us on the CFC committee thank you in advance for your generosity for helping make this holiday season a little brighter for our neighbors.

During last month's community focus collection, we raised $675 for United Way Marathon County's Ready to Read program!

☛ Looking for Hostess Gifts?

Don't forget our Fair Trade coffee, nuts and chocolate. Plus we have some awesome already assembled gift baskets for your purchase. Stop by the Fair Trade table during coffee hour after church.

You will be supporting both farmers who are receiving a living wage and our own Ari Schmidt Fund for Bus, Bail and Pizza!

The Board Table

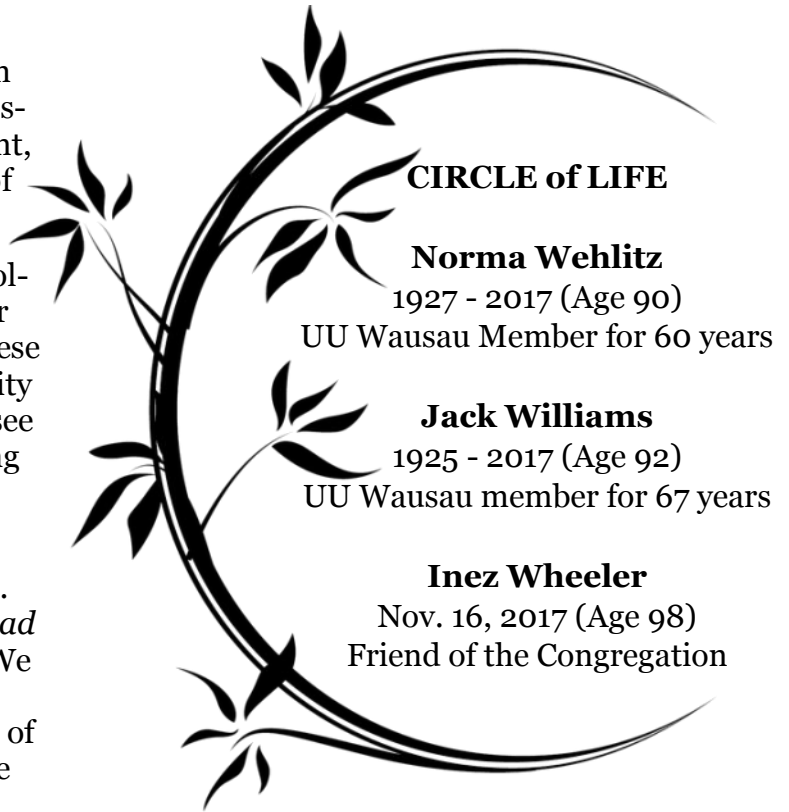

In this, the season of thankfulness, our church has so much to be thankful for. A settled minister, an excellent staff, a growing RE enrollment, plus a new kitchen and dining hall are some of our joys.

This is also the season of giving. Each week volunteers give of themselves. From teaching our children to making the after service coffee, these people give this church the precious commodity of their time. Sadly, more often than not, we see the same volunteers, week after week, covering the bases for all of us.

I may sound a bit like Margot Zemach's Little Red Hen, but the need is very real. Volunteers are what make the bread for this church. We are all busy. We all have other things to do. Two words from you can make a world of difference. "Not I" but "I will". The choice is yours.

Stewardship Drive Update

THANK YOU to all those who have already completed their 2018 Pledge Form. We're delighted to report:

Both $5,000 matching grants have been met. What's more, each of these generous Member-sponsored grants has been extended by $2,500!

That means...

$2,500 BONUS GRANT for new Members who have never pledged before ($5,000 already met + $2,500 new grant, for a potential total of $7,500 in bonus funds)

$2,500 BONUS GRANT for Members who increase their pledge by at least 15% above their pledge from the previous year ($5,000 already met + $2,500 new grant, for a potential total of $7,500 in bonus funds)

While we're THRILLED to have already raised an extra $10,000 through these two generous Member-sponsored matching grants, we're still short of meeting our 2018 pledge goal of $255,000. (Plus, we can still earn 5,000 BONUS DOLLARS for taking this Member up on the above grant extensions.)

So...

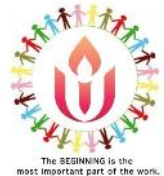

If you haven't returned your 2018 Pledge Form yet, please do so ASAP.

Anji has printed forms at the Front Desk, or you may download a Pledge Form at UUWausau.org/finance and mail it to: 504 Grant St., Wausau, WI 54403.

We eagerly anticipate meeting this goal — with YOUR help. Just think of all the GOOD we can do at UU Wausau TOGETHER...

Your 2018 Stewardship Committee,

Carl Drake, Marsha Fitzgerald, Christina Priewe, & Sarah Thurs
