10:30AM Services at UU Wausau

January 1

This will be our traditional congregation sharing of readings, stories, music, hopes, and dreams for the new year. This is participatory service, largely created by those attending. Everyone is encouraged to bring some insightful/inspirational words, a story, or song or musical piece to sing or play. The service will be coordinated by the Worship & Music Ministry Team.

January 8

-The Anthropology of Magic

Back by popular demand, Ron Lippi, recently retired university professor who taught a wide range of popular anthropology courses at UWMC for 26 years, will be here to cast his spell on us. Ron's comments will address: What is the difference between religion and magic? How is magic believed to work? What is its role in belief systems around the world?

Worship Leader: Randy Jefferson

Music: Karen Zuidema, piano

January 15

-Creative Maladjustment: Stories of Resistance

Rev. Dr. MLK said, "Human salvation lies in the hands of the creatively maladjusted." To what must we be "maladjusted?" As we begin the new year, I will tell stories of courage and resistance by the creatively "maladjusted." This is a lead-in for the conversation we will have as a congregation on Jan. 22.

Worship Leader: Rev. Laurie Bushbaum

Music: David Deon and the Soul Inspirations

January 22

-Saying "No" and Saying "Yes"

What does it mean to live our UU Principles here and now? What is the "yes" that inspires us to say, "no?" Today we will talk together about how you as a congregation want to shape your ministry after the Presidential Inauguration.

Small group discussion following the service.

Worship Leader: Rev. Laurie Bushbaum

Music: Bart Hobson, slack-key guitar

January 29

-Follow the Yellow Brick Road

What does the great modern myth of The Wizard of Oz, tell us about the human journey? We must all set off into the unknown, dodge dangers, find helpers along the way and navigate new territory. The first in a series on traveling...

Small group discussions following the service (see Jan, 22 service)

Worship Leader: Rev. Laurie Bushbaum

Music: Karen Zuidema, piano

In the Interim...

I want to share with all of you, excerpts from a letter that UUA President, Rev. Peter Morales, sent to all UU clergy. And while it was addressed to us, it is a public letter and applies to all UU's.

These are tough times. We are living in the midst of historic cultural turmoil. Long festering resentments are being unleashed, posing immediate threats to the most marginalized in our society and presenting long-term danger to our natural environment.

People are understandably anxious. I hear reports of a spike in attendance at worship services across the country. I can only imagine the pastoral demands you are facing—at a time when we ministers are in as much need of support as our congregants. Thank you for your courage, your perseverance, your faithfulness.

I believe we are entering dangerous times. I expect that the new administration will unleash human rights abuses aimed at migrants and Muslims shortly after it takes office. In the longer term, other marginalized groups (women, the poor, people of color, transgender people, etc.) will be in danger...

Among the dangers we face is the temptation to “normalize” the situation. I pray that the incoming administration will prove to be more humane than its rhetoric and many of its most ardent supporters. I see no evidence that this is the case.

We must prepare to provide sanctuary and resist. First, we must provide sanctuary in the broadest and richest sense of the term. We begin with offering safe places for reflection and healing for our congregants and for those coming to seek spiritual community. But these times demand more. We must provide sanctuary to those most vulnerable. In particular, migrants (primarily from Mexico and Central America) may well face mass deportation. In addition, Muslims have been targeted.

Second, we must prepare to resist human rights violations in active ways. We must make it much harder to deport, register, discriminate and de-spoil. In the past most of our work for justice and compassion has been positive. We have been advocates for marriage equality, racial justice, civil rights, immigration reform and environmental justice. To use a sports metaphor, we have played offense. We joined with others to advance an agenda. Today we must prepare to “play defense.” We will have to respond quickly to acts of the government. We will have to react rather than act. We will need to be agile and fast.

As always, the key will be to work together. We have shown our ability to do this from resisting the human rights violations of Joe Arpaio in Arizona to joining in the resistance at Standing Rock. We are effective when our congregations and ministers work together at the local level, combined with support from regional and national staff. We make a difference when we form strong partnerships with other faith groups and secular organizations.

At the national level, we are working to form partnerships with other faith groups and other UU organizations.

I invite you to visit the “Show the Love” hub on uua.org (<http://www.uua.org/action/show-love/resources>) for resources. I encourage you to see what colleagues are doing and to share what you are doing on <http://www.uua.org/action/show-love>.

In the coming weeks you will hear more as we work together to support you. For now, I want each of you to know that you are not alone. Together we are strong. Together we inspire one another. Together we can do this. We need one another.

Thank you again for all you do.

Love will guide us. Hope will sustain us. Ultimately we shall prevail.

Here at First UU, in January, we will begin a process of congregational discussion to consider how you, as a congregation, want to take a stand.

In solidarity, in courage, and in hope,

Rev. Louise

☛ January Community Focus Collection

Our Jan 18, 2017 Community Focus Collection will benefit the Wausau Warming Center. As I write this it is 0 degrees outside and I can only imagine how awful the nights must be for those who have no warm place to go. The WWC provides overnight accommodations for the homeless of Marathon Co. These individuals are not able to be served at the traditional shelters or cannot access these shelters due to capacity. Individuals struggling with mental health, drug or alcohol issues are allowed to use the center. The center provides a place for up to 25 adult men/women, hot dinner, breakfast, showers and laundry facilities. It is open 7pm to 9am Nov. -April. As we experience these colds days...lets be generous for the center.

☛ Women's Book Pack

The Book Pack will meet on January 31. The book to be discussed then will be Me Before You by Jojo Moyes.

☛ UU Wausau Winter Retreat

Join old friends and make new ones at the UU Wausau winter retreat January 27-29, 2017. We meet at Camp Manitowish in Boulder Junction for a fun-filled weekend of sledding, cross-country skiing, snow-shoeing, good food and fellowship. There is room for 12 families (each room has 4 bunks) with shared bathrooms and communal meals. Cost is around $31/night/adults 13 and up, $15/night 6-12, free 5 and under. If you are interested contact Dawn Ashenbrenner at 715-212-6481 or dawn1969@yahoo.com. This fills up quickly so sign up soon!

☛ Poetry Reading

The Wisconsin Fellowship of Poets, mid-central region, is sponsoring a poetry reading in Yawkey Hall on Sunday, January 29 at 2PM. The featured poet will be Mike Kriesel, followed by an open mic. The event is free and open to the public, and you are cordially invited!

☛ Madison Bus Trip - Women & Friends March at the Capitol

Saturday, January 22 9:00-5:30

Church member Nancy Stencil has arranged for a Lamer bus to take church members and friends (and their friends) to the March in Madison, in solidarity with the March in Washington D.C. We are standing with all of those who will be vulnerable in the next Administration.

We will leave the church at 9AM and leave Madison about 3PM for an estimated return time of 5-5:30PM.

If all 55 seats are sold, tickets will only cost $20 round trip.

Scholarships available. Contact Rev. Laurie or Nancy Stencil.

Please sign up on the list on the Atrium Table or call the church.

☛ Movies with Meaning

On January 26th UU Wausau and Move to Amend will show a filmed talk by David Daley on gerrymandering. The True Story Behind the Secret Plan to Steal America's Democracy will begin at 6:30PM.
